

Do not use this Application to establish a SIMPLE IRA.

Please complete the Traditional and Roth Individual Retirement Account (IRA) Application and Adoption Agreement (the "Application") to establish your IRA account. The applicant's name must be that of an individual, not a business or trust. If you are opening an IRA for your spouse, your spouse must complete a separate Application. Please read the Traditional IRA or Roth IRA Disclosure Statement carefully or consult Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Publication 590 for IRA eligibility requirements and contribution restrictions.

References to the "Custodian", "we" or "us" mean BNY Mellon Investment Servicing Trust Company.

The maximum allowable contribution to your IRAs (deductible, non-deductible and Roth) for each tax year is the lesser of (a) the contribution limit for the given tax year or (b) 100% of your compensation or earnings from self-employment. For those who have attained the age of 50 before the close of the taxable year, the annual IRA contribution limit increases by $1,000 known as a "catch-up contribution". Please refer to IRS Publication 590-A for current details.

Making an IRA contribution on behalf of your spouse - If you have earned compensation, are married and file a joint federal income tax return, you may make an IRA contribution on behalf of your working or nonworking spouse. The total annual contribution limit for both IRAs may not exceed the lesser of the combined compensation of both spouses or the annual IRA contribution limits as set forth by the IRS. Contributions made on behalf of a spouse must be made to a separate IRA account established by your spouse.

Any contribution made to your IRA will be treated as a contribution for the year it is received, unless the contribution is made between January 1 and the April 15th (or later April IRS-designated date) postmark deadline and you have identified the contribution as a prior year contribution. Please read the Traditional and Roth Individual Retirement Account (IRA) Combined Disclosure Statement carefully or consult IRS Publication 590-A or a qualified tax professional for more information about eligibility requirements and contribution restrictions.

The minimum initial investment for each mutual fund or deposit account position within a Domini IRA is $1,500, and the subsequent minimum is $100.

Please make checks payable to Domini Funds.

Contributions to your IRA may be invested in mutual funds pursuant to the Mutual Fund Option. (See "Description of Available Options for Your Contributions" in the Combined Disclosure Statement).

Prospectuses for the mutual funds available through the Mutual Fund Option (the "Funds") may be obtained by calling 1-800-582-6757 or by going to www.domini.com. Before investing in a Fund, please be sure to read the prospectus for that Fund carefully.

All portions of the Traditional and Roth Individual Retirement Account (IRA) Application and Adoption Agreement are binding on you so you are encouraged to read all portions of it, in particular the "Description of Available Options for Your Contributions", the applicable Custodial Account Agreement and "Terms and Conditions" on the signature page of the Application.

Trustee to Trustee Transfers and Rollovers

If you are establishing an IRA account to accept a transfer or rollover, be sure to check the appropriate box on the Application. To transfer your current IRA directly to your Domini IRA, please complete a "Transfer of Assets/Direct Rollover Form." To certify a rollover from an IRA or a qualified retirement plan, please complete the "Certification of Rollover Assets." Participant directed rollovers must be completed within 60 calendar days.

SIMPLIFIED EMPLOYEE PENSION (SEP) INSTRUCTIONS

A SEP is a written arrangement (a plan) that allows your employer to make contributions toward your retirement. Contributions are made to a traditional Individual Retirement Account ("traditional IRA"). Your employer will provide you with a copy of the agreement containing participation rules and a description of how employer contributions may be made to your IRA. Your employer must also provide you with a copy of the completed Form 5305-SEP or SEP prototype adoption agreement and a yearly statement showing contributions made to your IRA.

If you are an employer who is establishing a SEP Plan, please refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov to obtain a copy of IRS Form 5305-SEP.

Your employer has adopted a SEP Plan for your retirement needs. Please read the information on Form 5305-SEP as it contains important information on how a SEP works and your rights as a SEP IRA accountholder. Your employer will determine the amount to be contributed to your IRA each year. The amount for any year is limited to the smaller of the annual 415(c) dollar limitation (adjusted for cost-of-living, if applicable) or 25% of your compensation. Please see IRS Publication 560 for current limitations on benefits and contributions (COLA) limits.

All amounts contributed to your IRA by your employer belong to you even after you stop working for the employer. Employer contributions to your SEP IRA are excluded from your income unless there are contributions in excess of the applicable limit. For SEP IRAs, you and/or your employer are responsible for clearly differentiating SEP employer contributions from those of personal IRA contributions (if contributed to the same account).

If you are establishing a SEP IRA, you must attach an executed copy of the employer's Form 5305-SEP or SEP prototype adoption agreement.

Terms and Conditions

I, the Participant, acknowledge receiving and reading the Traditional and Roth IRA Application and Adoption Agreement Instructions, the Traditional IRA and Roth IRA Combined Disclosure Statement, the Traditional IRA Custodial Account Agreement, the Roth IRA Custodial Account Agreement, the Privacy Notices and the Business Continuity Plan Disclosure Statement (the "Account Documents"). I acknowledge receiving and reading the current prospectus for each Mutual Fund I may have designated for investment. The Custodian, upon proper instructions from me, is authorized to exchange units of one Eligible Asset for units of any other Eligible Asset and to purchase units of any Eligible Asset with the proceeds of any redemption.

Article VIII, Section 23 of the Traditional IRA Custodial Account Agreement and Article IX, Section 23 of the Roth IRA Custodial Account Agreement authorize the Custodian to take or to omit to take certain actions in the event assets or property in my IRA Account are liquidated and the Custodian does not receive timely instructions it can reasonably or practicably carry out and I agree to the terms of both Sections 23.

I hereby establish an Individual Retirement Account ("IRA") in accordance with instructions provided on these pages entitled Traditional and Roth Individual Retirement Account (IRA) Application and Adoption Agreement and agree to participate under the terms and conditions contained in the Account Documents and on the aforementioned pages (the "Full Agreement"). (My IRA account with the Custodian is called the "IRA Account" on this page).

I agree that this IRA becomes effective only upon written acceptance by the Custodian and that such written acceptance will consist of a confirmation of transaction statement.

I agree that the Custodian may amend (add to, delete from or revise) any term of the Full Agreement at any time by notice to me and that my sole remedy if I disagree with the amendment is to transfer funds in the IRA Account to another custodian. I agree that the Full Agreement is binding on me and on my successors in interest.

Each contribution to my IRA will be invested in accordance with the written instructions I provide with respect to that contribution. In the event that this is a rollover contribution, the undersigned hereby irrevocably elects, pursuant to the requirements of Section 1.402(a)(5)-1T of the IRS regulations, to treat this contribution as a rollover contribution.

Custodial Fees: $10 annual maintenance fee per account per year. This fee is owed and due for each full and partial calendar year that the IRA Account is open. The participant may pay the fee with funds other than those in the IRA Account ("non-custodial funds"). If the fee for a calendar year is not paid by the participant from non-custodial funds by the date reasonably designated by the Custodian or prior to closing the IRA Account, the Custodian is authorized to deduct the fee from funds in the IRA Account at any time immediately after such payment due date or immediately after receiving instructions to close the IRA Account. The Custodian is authorized to change the fee but will give at least 30 days written notice to the participant of any fee change. The Custodian will keep those records, identify and file returns and provide other information concerning the IRA as required of custodians by the Internal Revenue Code and any regulations issued or forms adopted by the Internal Revenue Service or U.S. Treasury Department.

I understand that the telephone transaction privileges will apply to my account. If I have telephone transaction privileges, I agree that neither the Custodian, Domini Funds, nor their transfer agent, their agents, officers, trustees, directors or employees will be liable for any loss, liability or expense for acting, or refusing to act on instructions given under the telephone transaction privileges that are reasonably believed to be genuine and I accept the risk of loss.

I direct that all benefits upon my death be paid as indicated on the beneficiary designation. If I named a beneficiary that is a Trust, I understand I must provide certain information concerning such Trust to the Custodian.

I (the Participant) certify under penalties of perjury that (i) all information I have provided on this form or otherwise in connection with establishing my IRA is true, correct, and complete, and (ii) I am a US person (including a US resident alien) and that my Social Security Number is true, correct and complete and that this number is my Taxpayer Identification Number. (Foreign persons must use appropriate Form W-8)

To help the U.S. Government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies persons opening accounts. To comply, the Custodian requires the participant's name, address, date of birth and government-issued identification number (generally, a Social Security Number) and other information that may help the Custodian identify the participant; and the Custodian may ask for copies of related documentation and may consult third-party databases to help verify the participant's identity. I have read and I understand the Disclosure Statement which explains the risks of opening this account if I do not provide all requested identification materials or if my identity cannot be adequately verified in accordance with U.S. Government requirements.

Business Continuity Plan Disclosure Statement

Domini Impact Investments LLC and its affiliated distributor, DSIL Investment Services LLC, maintain a Business Continuity Plan (BCP) that has been developed with the goal of protecting the health and safety of our employees and maintaining continuity of service for our Domini Funds' shareholders. Our plan is designed to ensure that we are prepared to operate through significant business disruptions, so that our shareholders can access their accounts without significant interruption under most circumstances.

Key elements of our BCP include the following:

- Critical data from our computer systems is backed up daily to geographically remote, secure facilities.
- All Domini employees can access Domini's computer data remotely via a secure connection. In the event that Domini's primary network is not accessible, Domini maintains replicas of all file and database servers in a geographically remote disaster-recovery network available to all employees over a secure connection.
- We maintain an office evacuation plan and emergency procedures in the event of a disaster affecting our primary office facilities or surrounding area.
- We maintain an emergency contact list and procedures updated and distributed on a regular basis.

Our mission critical functions, including shareholder transaction processing, custody and fund accounting, and investment submanagement, are accomplished through our key service providers. These key service providers are required to maintain business continuity plans, which Domini reviews at least annually.

Domini's BCP is designed to address significant business disruptions of varying scope, including a firm-only disruption, single-building disruption, city-wide business disruption, or a regional disruption. In the event of a significant business disruption, our employees are to communicate from alternate locations and access Domini's computer data remotely. Key service providers would be contacted, and would, if possible, continue to provide critical shareholder transaction processing, custody, fund accounting, and investment submanagement services. Our key service providers maintain offices outside New York City, thereby lessening the effect of a city-wide business disruption. Our key service providers maintain alternate business locations with the goal of enabling them to resume critical functions in a reasonable period of time in the event of a regional disruption of significant scope.

If you need to contact us after a significant business disruption, please call our Shareholder Information line at 1-800-582-6757, our main office telephone number at 212-217-1100, or go to our website at www.domini.com and click on the "Contact" link. If you cannot contact us by calling our Shareholder Information line, our main office phone number, or our website, please contact Domini Funds' Transfer Agent, BNY Mellon Asset Servicing, at 610-382-7826 or through its website at <http://www.bnymellon.com/assetservicing/index.html>.

It is impossible for us to anticipate every potential problem that may occur, but we believe our BCP will enable us to continue to conduct business in the event of a variety of possible business disruptions. We believe that our BCP is reasonably designed to help us limit the recovery time necessary to resume operations.

We review and test our BCP at least annually. The BCP is subject to modification based on changing circumstances and assessment of need.
